The corporate governance of Kurita Water Industries Ltd. is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Key Information

1. Basic Views

Kurita Water Industries Ltd. and its consolidated subsidiaries (hereinafter the “Kurita Group,” and Kurita Water Industries Ltd. on a non-consolidated basis shall be hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) aim to contribute broadly to society through corporate activities in the fields of water and environment in accordance with the Kurita corporate philosophy, “Study the properties of water, master them, and we will create an environment in which nature and humanity are in harmony.” The Kurita Group will make efforts to promote sustainable growth and enhance its corporate value in the medium and long term, deferring to the rights and position of various stakeholders such as customers, business partners, employees, shareholders, and local communities while striving to meet their expectations. To this end, the Kurita Group will establish corporate governance, with the aim of realizing transparent, fair, prompt, and decisive decision-making measures and highly effective management supervision.

[Basic Policies]

(1) Ensuring the rights and equality of shareholders

The Kurita Group will work to develop an environment in which the shareholders are able to appropriately exercise their rights, such as voting rights at a general meeting of shareholders, and provide the information needed to exercise of their rights in a timely and accurate manner in order to secure the substantive equality of the rights of shareholders, including minority and foreign shareholders.

(2) Appropriate level of cooperation with stakeholders other than shareholders

The Kurita Group will work to ensure an appropriate level of cooperation with stakeholders such as customers, business partners, employees, and local communities under the leadership of the Board of Directors. To achieve this aim, the Kurita Group will properly respond to issues related to sustainability (medium- to long-term sustainability including ESG factors), and make actions based on compliance with laws, regulations, and social ethics a prerequisite for all corporate activities.

(3) Ensuring appropriate information disclosure and transparency of information

The Kurita Group will develop an environment in which the Audit Committee, the members of the Audit Committee, and the accounting auditor are able to conduct audits properly. It will also disclose information in accordance with the laws related to information disclosure, such as the Companies Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, and regulations established by the financial instruments exchange. The Kurita Group will actively and fairly disclose information that is deemed to be effective for facilitating understanding of the Kurita Group among shareholders and investors. This information will comprise financial information including financial conditions and results of operations, management strategies including risks, corporate governance, sustainability issues and other matters related to social and environmental issues, and policies for capital efficiency.

(4) Duties of the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board, etc.

The Board of Directors will fulfill its fiduciary responsibility and accountability to shareholders. It will strengthen the orientation of corporate strategies, the supervision of overall management, which is made from an independent and objective standpoint, the internal controls and risk management measures that support appropriate risk-taking, etc. in order to enhance the corporate value and earnings power, as well as improve capital efficiency, etc.

(5) Dialogue with shareholders and investors

Continuing to emphasize management that values shareholders, the Kurita Group will make efforts to engage in constructive dialogues with shareholders and investors, as well as provide them with information in a timely and appropriate manner.

The Company's Corporate Governance Policies are posted on our website:

https://ir.kurita.co.jp/en/corporate_governance/governance_policies/index.html

Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code

The Company complies with all the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

Disclosure Based on each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code Updated

[Supplementary Principle 1.2.4 Participation in Electronic Voting Platform]

In light of its shareholder composition, etc., the Company introduced the Electronic Voting Platform for institutional investors at the time of the general shareholder meeting in 2006 and notifies shareholders to this effect in the convocation notice.

[Supplementary Principle 1.2.5 Exercise of rights by institutional investors at general shareholder meetings]

Where institutional investors who hold shares in the name of a trust bank or custodial institutions express an interest in attending the general shareholder meeting, the Company confirms the fact that such institutional investors hold shares and arranges for their observation of the meeting.

[Principle 1.4 Policies regarding shares owned for policy purposes and the exercise of voting rights]

(1) Policy regarding shares owned for policy purposes

In some cases, the Company holds listed shares as shares owned for policy purposes to strengthen business relationships, etc. When holding such shares, the Company makes efforts to minimize the risk of holding shares owned for policy purposes by examining economic rationality in the medium and long term and relationships with companies whose shares the Company holds. The propriety of holding each individual stock owned for policy purposes is reviewed on a regular or timely basis at the Board of Directors by closely examining the expected return against the cost of capital and the status of business transactions with the company whose shares the Company holds. Based on the results of the examination, the Company strives to reduce the holding of shares owned for policy purposes.

(2) Policy for exercising the voting rights of shares owned for policy purposes

When exercising the voting rights of shares owned for policy purposes, the Company will do so by judging the pros and cons of each proposal, taking into comprehensive consideration whether it will contribute to medium- and long-term enhancement of the corporate value of the Company and a company in which the Company holds shares.

(3) Policy for responding to the intention to sell, etc. of the Company's shares indicated by a shareholder owning shares for policy purposes (Note 1)

If a shareholder owning shares for policy purposes indicates its intention to sell, etc. the Company's shares, the Company will not prevent the shareholder from making such sale, etc.

Note 1: The term “shareholder owning shares for policy purposes” means a shareholder who owns the Company’s shares for policy purposes.

(4) Policy for transactions with shareholders owning shares for policy purposes

The Company will not conduct transactions with any shareholder owning shares for policy purposes if such transactions are detrimental to the Company itself and common interests of its shareholders.

⇒ In accordance with the above policies, the Company reviewed shares owned for policy purposes, and as a result, sold 10 holdings (including ones sold partially) in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

[Principle 1.7 Transactions between related parties (Note 2)]

When conducting an important transaction (Note 3) with a related party, the Company will review and decide on the transaction in advance at the Board of Directors to ensure that the transaction does not harm the interests of the Kurita Group and the common interests of its shareholders. The details of the submission standards, etc. shall be set forth in the Board of Directors Regulations, and the standards shall be disclosed.

Note 2: The term “Transactions between related parties” means transactions between the Company and following persons.

(a) An officer of the Company and its close relative, (b) a shareholder who holds 10% or more of the voting rights of the Company and its close relative, (c) an important officer of a subsidiary and its close relative, (d) a subsidiary of the Company (excluding wholly owned subsidiaries) and its affiliate, and (e) a company in which a party mentioned in (a) through (d) above holds the majority of the voting rights for its own account and its subsidiary.

Note 3: The term “important transaction” means the transactions listed below.

(a) Transaction exceeding 10% of the net sales or the sum of the cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses on a consolidated statement of income, (b) transaction related to profit or loss exceeding 10% of other income, other expense, finance income, or finance costs on a consolidated statement of income, (c) transaction exceeding 1% of the total assets on consolidated balance sheet, (d) transaction in which the balance, the total amount of transactions generated, or the average balance for the period of the loan of funds or the purchase or sale of tangible fixed assets or securities, etc. exceeds 1% of total assets on a consolidated balance sheet, (e) in the case of the transfer or acquisition of business, the total amount of assets or liability subject to the transfer or acquisition, whichever amount is greater, exceeds 1% of the total assets on a consolidated balance sheet, (f) in the event the related party is an individual, the transaction of an item on a consolidated statement of income or a consolidated balance sheet that exceeds 10 million yen, and (g) other transactions which are judged to need to be submitted to the Board of Directors for discussion, in light of their characteristics.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Approach to human resources diversity and policy for responding to human resources diversity]

Based on the concept that human resources diversity is the foundation for generating innovation as well as a source for pioneering new value for water linked to sustained growth, the Kurita Group, in its efforts to secure diversity, established as its human resources policy a basic approach to human resources. This approach ensures that those with diverse experience, skills and qualities can be active, leveraging their expertise. At the same time, the Kurita Group will determine the direction for human resources utilization and organizational support in its human resources policy in order to nurture talent and improve the internal environment, and will disclose the progress of the relevant initiatives. Moreover, the Kurita Group will endeavor to ensure diversity in the appointment, etc. of core human resources, clarify its approach and voluntary and measurable targets, while disclosing the status of relevant initiatives.

<Approach to human resources diversity>

The Kurita Group aims to provide value to customers and society through innovative achievements made by its human resources with diverse backgrounds -- including gender, nationality, age, presence or absence of disabilities, how they joined the company, work style (employment status and working arrangements), and experience -- by taking advantage of each other's experience, knowledge, skills, and other qualities, toward realizing the Corporate Philosophy. The Kurita Group is also proactive in ensuring the diversity of its management and employees in management positions (and their equivalents) as its core human resources.

<Voluntary and measurable targets on diversity and the current level of diversity>

(1) Promotion of women to management positions, etc.

The Company has developed an action plan based on the Act on the Promotion of Women's Active Engagement in Professional Life and is taking initiatives to (a) increase the ratio of female recruits, (b) provide career development support for women in career track positions, (c) expand the roles of female employees and systematically appoint women to management positions, and (d) establish opportunities for women to interact both inside and outside the Company. For targets and results for past fiscal years, please refer to the attachments at the end of this report.

As of December 2023, the number of women in management positions at the Company is 13 (4.2% of all employees in management positions). In addition, the Company positions senior employees, management assistants, and specialists under the specialist system as "equivalent to employees in management" including employees in management positions, and they are working actively as core human resources. As of December 2023, the number of women who are equivalent to employees in management positions is 29. Because of its initiatives to promote women to core human resources, the Company has been selected as a constituent of the MSCI Japan Empowering Women Index (WIN) since 2017.

(2) Promotion of non-Japanese employees to management positions, etc.

The Kurita Group strives to establish a system for operating globally by adopting ways of thinking of diverse countries and regions through the following initiatives. (a) Have the Company's headquarters organizations (organizations other than those exclusively engaged in the Japanese market) work together with overseas Kurita Group companies and (b) Promote locally recruited employees to the senior management of overseas Kurita Group companies.

Accordingly, the Company is promoting globally competitive human resources including non-Japanese to positions equivalent to management positions at headquarters organizations. The company defines "globally competitive human resources" as those who have experienced living and working overseas for three years or longer, those who have experienced overseas businesses for three years or longer, and those who can use English for work, etc. The Company recruits several non-Japanese employees every year. As of December 2023, it has 20 such employees, three of whom are working actively in positions equivalent to management positions. In addition, the ratio of globally competitive human resources to those equivalent to employees in management positions at headquarters organizations is 31.0% as of December 2023, and the Company will increase this ratio further. The Company has not set any long-term target for the recruitment and promotion of non-Japanese employees. However, it will continue to recruit globally competitive human resources and promote them to core human resources proactively as it expands its businesses globally.

(3) Promotion of mid-career recruits to management positions, etc.

The Company is strengthening recruits of mid-career employees, and the number of mid-career employees hired in FY2023 is approximately four times higher than the previous year, expecting them to contribute immediately to its business expansion. In addition, the mid-career recruits have demonstrated practical work skills, and as of December 2023, 85 of those who joined the Company as mid-career recruits have been promoted to positions equivalent to management positions (constituting 13.2% of all employees in such positions). The company plans to increase the ratio of mid-career recruits to all employees, which is approx. 10% at present, to around 30% by April 2031. Thus, the Company will continue to recruit such human resources and promote them to core human resources proactively.

(4) Other matters

The Kurita Group has developed its Value Creation Story (Note 4), which provides a roadmap for growing together with society sustainably over the long term. The Group believes that human resources in technology fields (Note 5) supporting Kurita, human resources promoting DX (Note 6) and intellectual property human resources are important for achieving this. The Human Resources Development Committee will enhance measures to secure, train, and utilize engineers in technology fields supporting Kurita, and the DX Committee will take the same initiatives for business human resources promoting DX. For intellectual property human resources, the Company will promote the active hiring of experienced personnel. Specific plan targets are to have around 130 "human resources in technology fields supporting Kurita," around 750 "human resources promoting DX," and around 30 "intellectual property human resources" by the fiscal year ending March 2028.

<Policies for human resource development and improving the internal environment for ensuring diversity, and their status>

As a human resource development policy based on the above human resources policy, the Company takes initiatives with a focus on the following two points.

(1) Continue to strengthen development and utilization of engineers in technology fields supporting Kurita and secure and develop business human resources promoting DX in the coming several years, thus promoting creation of new value

⇒ Engineers in technology fields supporting Kurita are developed in a carefully planned manner by the Company's subcommittee of specialized engineers under the engineer development plan it has formulated. Development of business human resources promoting DX is strengthened, such as by creating opportunities to learn AI and data science, based on the results of assessments of the Company's employees about their digital innovator quality and the skills and needs of organizations.

(2) Position the active participation of human resources with a high degree of expertise, in addition to the cohesion of human resources, as core strengths and develop a system that will facilitate both of them.

⇒ The Human Resources Development Committee is systematically organizing the Company's training and development programs, enhancing programs for developing human resources with a high level of expertise, and taking other steps to rebuild the training and development system.

In addition, based on aspects of experience, advice and training, the Company is providing human resource development measures, such as supporting the career development of young employees, considering transfers and assignments that take career development into account, developing management level employees who actively support the challenges of their subordinates, and providing "effective learning opportunities" and an "environment for independent learning" and, based on the results of an engagement survey (Note 7) conducted in FY 2023, the company is continuing strengthening our human capital, including revising our evaluation and compensation systems and taking measures to improve the quality of communication between employees, etc.

As its policy for improving the internal environment, the Company takes initiatives with a focus on the following two points.

(1) Foster an organizational culture with Diversity & Inclusion (Note 8) instilled in it and a high level of engagement, so as to create value that contributes to customers and society

⇒ The Company is pursuing initiatives to take advantage of diversity, including training for fostering a culture of diversity, deepening understanding of diversity through workplace discussions, human rights training for instilling an understanding of diversity, including sexual minorities, and round tables and workshops on the theme of promoting the success of diverse human resources. Specific examples are as follows:

◇ Career development support for women in career track positions

- Implement career development workshops for management-oriented and professional-oriented employees, respectively.

◇ Support for the success of mid-career recruits

- Strengthen explanations of job descriptions and career paths during the selection process, implement an onboarding program, and conduct regular interviews after joining the Company.

In addition, the Company is making use of work from home and remote work, helping employees balance work and life events such as childcare and nursing care, and taking other steps to build an environment where diverse employees can work comfortably. Further, initiatives to build an organization with a high level of engagement are taken on a group-wide basis by instilling an understanding of the Value Creation Story to encourage employees to support the Corporate Philosophy and by implementing a PDCA cycle based on regular engagement surveys.

(2) Build a system for providing value globally in accordance with characteristics of each region

⇒ The Company aims to provide value that is suitable for the characteristics of customers and society in each of the countries and regions in which it operates, including Japan. In particular, in countries other than Japan, the Company is fostering locally recruited employees in each area and promoting them to senior management in accordance with the situation of each overseas Kurita Group company. In addition, diverse human resources from all over the world participate in multiple Group-wide projects. Thus, the globalization of human resources is also promoted through creation of new value.

Note 4: It provides a roadmap for the Kurita Group to achieve sustainable growth with society by creating corporate value over the long term to achieve the Corporate Philosophy. Please refer to the Company's Integrated Report.

https://ir.kurita.co.jp/en/reports/annual_report/index.html

Note 5: It refers to approx. 30 technology fields indicated in the map of the Group's engineers.

Note 6: They are digital specialists of the Company who create new business models and value using digital technologies.

Note 7: It refers to the bonds between employees and company/organization and between employees and work. It is believed that if these bonds are strong, employees work with enthusiasm and motivation and contribute to their company or organization, on a voluntary basis.

Note 8: The Company is fostering a corporate culture and taking other actions based on Our Vision for Diversity & Inclusion, "The corporate group that continues to create unique value through interaction among diverse people who care about water and the environment and who accept each other's differences," which was set to enhance the Company's measures to improve the Kurita Group's competitiveness by taking advantage of diversity, including the promotion of women's empowerment.

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

The Company does not adopt the fund-type and contract-type defined benefit corporate pension plan and the employees' pension fund so that it does not fall under the relevant general principles.

The Company has adopted a corporate-type defined contribution pension plan, which is operated by employees on their own. The Company provides training and information about the plan to employees on a regular basis, in addition to providing an explanation on it when they join the Company.

[Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure]

Regarding (1) Company objectives (e.g. business principles), business strategies and business plans and (2) Basic views and guidelines on corporate governance based on each of the principles of the Code, please refer to 1. Basic Views under I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information of this report.

(3) Policies and procedures for determining the remuneration of the Directors and the Executive Officers

(a) Policies for deciding remuneration of the Directors and the Executive Officers

Remuneration of the Company's officers will be determined based on the following policies.

- i. Remuneration shall enable the Company to recruit and retain excellent human resources with diverse capabilities, experience, etc. that contribute to achieving its corporate philosophy.
- ii. Importance shall be attached to the link between remuneration and business performance and medium- and long-term corporate value, so that remuneration will function as a sound incentive for achieving sustainable growth.
- iii. Decisions on remuneration shall always be objective, and the process of making the decisions shall be highly transparent.

Because the Directors focus on supervision, the remuneration system for Directors is a fixed remuneration plan only. In addition, a portion of the fixed remuneration of Directors (excluding External Directors and Directors who are members of the Audit Committee) is non-performance-linked stock compensation so that Directors will share the risks of share price fluctuations with shareholders. A portion of fixed remuneration of External Directors and Directors who are members of the Audit Committee is appropriated for the Directors' Shareholding Scheme for the purchase of the Company's shares.

The remuneration system for the Executive Officers consists of fixed remuneration and incentive remuneration that reflects performance. Incentive remuneration consists of short-term incentive remuneration, which increases or decreases depending on the level of attainment of the annual business plan, the evaluation of each individual's performance of his or her duties, and the level of achievement of certain indexes and targets linked to the Kurita Group's materiality, and long-term incentive remuneration as performance-linked stock compensation that increases or decreases depending on changes in the capital efficiency index and share-price-linked index during the term of office.

(b) Procedures for deciding the remuneration of the Directors and the Executive Officers

The Compensation Committee will make decisions on the remuneration systems and levels of Directors and Executive Officers and the assessment of the performance of Executive Officers. Based on the remuneration systems, levels, and performance assessment which have been determined, the Compensation Committee will determine the contents of remuneration of individual Directors and Executive Officers.

(4) “Policies and procedures for nominating Directors”, “Policies and procedures for nominating and appointing/dismissing the President and Executive Officer and other Executive Officers and “Selection of candidates for the successor to the President and Executive Officer and succession planning policies”

(a) Policies and procedures for nominating Directors

In the selection of candidates for Directors including External Directors, considerations will be given to diversity, and candidates for Directors will be nominated based on “(12) Makeup and size of the Board of Directors” and requirements specified by the Nominating Committee, so that the Board of Directors will reflect the perspective of shareholders and other stakeholders and focus its efforts on supervision of management to help enhance the corporate value. The Nominating Committee will decide on candidates for Directors to be recommended at a general meeting of shareholders by clarifying reasons for the recommendation.

(b) Policies and procedures for nominating and appointing/dismissing the President and Executive Officer and other Executive Officers

In appointing the President and Executive Officer and other Executive Officers, the Board of Directors will review the management structure at least once a year so that the administrative structure will create shared value with stakeholders and contribute to the sustainable growth of the Kurita Group. The Board of Directors will nominate candidates for the President and Executive Officer and other Executive Officers based on requirements determined by the Board of Directors. Decisions on the selection and dismissal of the President and Executive Officer and the appointment and removal of Executive Officers are made by the Board of Directors based on reports from the Nominating Committee. Whether to reappoint the President and Executive Officer or not will be considered by the Nominating Committee based on its regular review of the status of operational execution, and the Nominating Committee submits a report to the Board of Directors.

(c) Selection of candidates for the successor to the President and Executive Officer and succession planning policies

The Nominating Committee will deliberate on requirements for the President and Executive Officer in light of the aims of the Company and specific management strategies and then report the results to the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee will select multiple candidates for the successor to the President and Executive Officer and develop succession planning measures based on requirements set forth by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will regularly confirm the selection of candidates for the successor to the President and Executive Officer, development of the succession planning measures, and its progress based on reports from the Nominating Committee.

(5) Explanations with respect to the appointment and nomination of directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board

In 2016, the Company began to disclose explanations with respect to the individual appointments and nominations in the notice of convocation of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.2 Provision of information in English]

From the perspective of fair information disclosure to investors, the Company strives to provide English versions of the notice of convocation of a general shareholder meeting, materials including presentation materials used in financial results briefings, integrated reports, and sustainability reports, as well as summaries of questions and answers used in financial results briefings. The Company is listed among companies with excellent English disclosure in the Results of the Survey of Overseas Investors on English Disclosure by Japanese Companies, which was announced by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, on August 31, 2023.

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Initiatives for sustainability, etc.]

(1) Policy for sustainability issues and other matters related to social and environmental issues

The Kurita Group regards sustainability as positioning corporate activities in the natural environment and social systems, and seeking sustainable growth based on their mutual impacts. The Group places sustainability at the core of its management. The Group identifies key issues for the realization of its corporate vision in each of its medium-term management plans based on global issues related to sustainability, defines them as "Kurita Group's Materiality," and sets indicators and targets to address them. The departments in charge of activities designated for each indicator carry out activities to achieve the goals, and the Sustainability Committee chaired by the Executive General Manager of the Sustainability Division, who is an Corporate Officer of the Company, receives reports on the status of activities from the departments in charge, and comprehensively manages and promotes materiality initiatives, while submits for discussion or reports on the status to the Executive Committee twice a year. The Executive Committee reports the status of materiality initiatives to the Board of Directors.

In addition, the Kurita Group works on engagement with stakeholders such as customers, business partners, employees, shareholders/investors, and local communities, and promotes information disclosure in accordance with international disclosure standards such as the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD). Expectations, concerns and evaluations obtained through engagement are used to verify the validity of the Kurita Group's Materiality, its indicators and targets, and to conduct various activities to achieve these targets. The Sustainability Committee will collect the status of engagement from the relevant departments as determined for each engagement and reflects it in these initiatives.

Of the incentive remuneration for Executive Officers, part of the calculation of short-term incentive remuneration, which is performance-linked remuneration, uses certain indicators tied to Materiality and an environmental contribution coefficient that evaluates the degree of achievement of targets.

Details of the disclosed contents are available at the Company's website. Please refer to the following.

(2) Investment in human capital

The Kurita Group views its human resources as the foundations underpinning its sustainable growth. To enhance customer intimacy as the Group's strength, each employee needs to be a human resource with a high level of expertise and commit themselves to solving customers' issues. Therefore, the Kurita Group works to secure and develop human resources and succeed technologies related to water that it has cultivated over many years. At the same time, it is building an environment in which each one of its employees can fully demonstrate their capabilities and aptitude and create an organizational culture that permits diverse human resources to work actively. The following four initiatives are introduced as examples at the Company's website. Please refer to them.

https://www.kurita.co.jp/english/csr/csr_activity_human/index.html

- (a) Training of specialized engineers
- (b) Enhancing capabilities through training
- (c) Knowledge and skill acquisition through the mentoring program
- (d) Providing opportunities to increase self-development

(3) Investment in intellectual property

To expand its business and improve profitability by making maximum use of its intellectual property, the Kurita Group engages in intellectual property activities under a basic approach it has specified and the Kurita Group Policy on Intellectual Property Activities, which it has established for the purpose of facilitating the appropriate acquisition, protection, and utilization of intellectual property and respecting the property of other companies. As investments in intellectual property, the Group makes investments aimed at increasing the number of patents applications filed overseas in response to the expansion of global operation and investments for reinforcing the protection of patents covering the CSV business, which is the Company's focus. In addition, to reliably protect the results of its research and development activities, the Group strives to increase its competitiveness by clarifying the sources of competitive advantage that should be patent protected from the development stage and by building a patent network from both the elemental technology and business model perspectives.

The Group's R&D activities and use of intellectual property other than the above are introduced in the Company's Integrated Report. Please refer to them. https://ir.kurita.co.jp/en/reports/annual_report/index.html

[Supplementary Principle 3.2.1 Selection and evaluation of an external accounting auditor]

(1) Policy for a nominating the accounting auditor

The Audit Committee will nominate a candidate for the accounting auditor by establishing the criteria for nominating, dismissing, and refusing to reappoint the accounting auditor of the Company. These criteria are meant to ensure the independence and expertise of the accounting auditor so that it may conduct audits properly, and thereby enable the Kurita Group to earn the confidence of its shareholders and society and fulfill its social responsibility as a company.

(2) Standards for selecting a candidate for the accounting auditor and evaluating the accounting auditor

When selecting a candidate for the accounting auditor, the Audit Committee will make a judgment on the nomination, dismissal, and refusal to reappoint the accounting auditor of the Company by obtaining the necessary information, receiving a report from the Directors and related divisions inside the Company, and making a comprehensive assessment of the following items based on the evaluation standards set forth in the Audit Standards of the Audit Committee:

a) Independence, b) Quality control, c) Auditing capabilities, d) Audit plan, e) Implementation system, and f) Audit costs

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 The scope of judgments and decisions made by the Board of Directors and the scope of responsibility delegated to senior management (Note 9)]

The Board of Directors will make decisions on matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors stipulated in laws, regulations, or the articles of incorporation and matters which will have a significant impact on the management of the Kurita Group, including policies for formulating the corporate vision, medium-term management plans, and annual business plans set forth in the Board of Directors Regulations. The Board of Directors will determine operations to delegate to the Executive Officers and entrust the Executive Officers to make decisions on operational execution, excluding matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors. In regards to decisions on operational execution to be made by the Executive Officers, the Executive Committee consisting of senior management or senior management, etc. with the decision-making authority set forth in the Internal Decision Approval and Review Rules will quickly make such decisions, striving to achieve the objectives of the business plans.

Note 9: The term “senior management” means the President and Executive Officer and the Executive Officers and Corporate Officers who are appointed by the President and Executive Officer.

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.3 Development of successor and succession plan]

Please refer to (4) “Policies and procedures for nominating Directors”, “Policies and procedures for nominating and appointing/dismissing the President and Executive Officer and other Executive Officers and “Selection of candidates for the successor to the President and Executive Officer and succession planning policies” in [Principle 3-1 Full Disclosure] above.

[Principle 4.8 Policy for the effective use of independent External Directors]

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of eight (8) directors, with four (4) internal directors and four (4) external directors (with the ratio of independent external directors at 50%). It provides strategic direction that contributes to the Kurita Group's sustainable growth, makes decisions on important matters related to operational execution based on the direction, and exercises supervisory functions over the execution of duties by the directors and overall management. With respect to the number of independent external directors, the Company, as a company listed on the Prime Market, will continue to consider appointing a sufficient number of such directors by taking a comprehensive perspective based on the operating environment and the skills matrix.

[Supplementary Principle 4.8.1 Policies for the effective use of independent External Directors]

The Directors and the Executive Officers shall mutually exchange information with independent External Directors and promote the shared understanding of the execution of operations, using opportunities such as the Board of Directors and other individual meetings. The exchange of information and shared understanding will enable independent External Directors to fulfill their roles and responsibilities.

If necessary, independent External Directors may instruct certain employees to assist the Directors with their duties.

[Supplementary Principle 4.8.3 Listed company with a controlling shareholder]

This code is not applicable because the Company does not have a controlling shareholder.

[Principle 4.9 Roles and duties of independent External Directors and criteria for judging the independence of independent External Directors]

Independent External Directors shall evaluate the results of the business activities of the Kurita Group and the execution of duties by the Directors and the Executive Officers, taking into consideration the corporate philosophy, the corporate vision, the medium-term management plan, and the management plan for a fiscal year. They shall express their opinions at the Board of Directors from the standpoint of promoting the sustainable growth of the Kurita Group and enhancing its corporate value in the medium and long term.

Independent External Directors shall express their opinions at the Board of Directors from an independent position and the standpoint of supervising management in regards to important decisions made at the Board of Directors.

The criteria for judging the independence of independent External Directors in selecting candidates shall be that the candidates for independent External Directors and their close relatives (Note 10) must not fall under any of the following items.

- a. A person who currently executes the operations of the Company or its subsidiary or has executed such operations in the past 10 years.
- b. A person whose major business partner is currently the Company (Note 11) or was the Company at some time during the past year, or an individual who executes the operations of this party
- c. A current major business partner of the Company (Note 12) or a major business partner at some time during the past year, or a person who executes the operations of the major business partner
- d. A consultant, an accountant, or a legal professional who currently receives or has received at some point during the past year a lot of money or property (Note 13) other than remuneration for officers from the Company
- e. A current major shareholder of the Company (Note 14) or a person who executes the operations of a major shareholder
- f. A person who executes the operations of an organization in which an external officer also currently assumes office (the person only)
- g. A person who executes the operations of an organization to which the Company currently makes a donation (the person only)

Note 10: The term “close relatives” means relatives within the second degree of kinship.

Note 11: The term “person whose major business partner is the Company” means a person whose sales in transactions with the Company make up 2% or more of that person’s consolidated net sales.

Note 12: The term “major business partner of the Company” means a business partner with whom the Company’s sales in transactions make up 2% or more of the consolidated net sales of the Company, or a business partner from which borrowings make up 1% or more of the consolidated total assets of the Company.

Note 13: The term “a lot of money or property” means money and other property that are equivalent to 10 million yen or more per year, other than remuneration for officers.

Note 14: The term “major shareholder of the Company” means a shareholder who has voting rights that account for 10% or more of the voting rights of the Company.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Makeup and size of the Board of Directors]

(1) Human resources structure

To fulfill the highly effective supervisory function over operational execution, the Board of Directors will consist of persons with the necessary knowledge, experience and competence, taking into consideration gender and diversity. With regard to this knowledge, experience and competence, the Company will identify skills regarding corporate management, corporate planning and other aspects of corporate governance management, skills required to realize the direction sought by the Kurita Group of creating social value by leveraging diversity and Water Knowledge, and necessary skills, etc. for realizing the corporate philosophy. The Board of Directors as a whole will be organized in a way that complements the above. For the skills matrix, please refer to the attachments at the end of this report.

(2) Number of Directors

There shall be three or more Directors in total. No less than one-third of these Directors shall be External Directors to ensure the independence and objectivity of the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Restriction on concurrent service of Directors]

Independent External Directors shall not concurrently serve as a Director or a corporate auditor at more than three listed companies including the Company. The Company will disclose the concurrent service status of Directors every year.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Policies for evaluating the Board of Directors]

(1) Purpose and frequency of evaluation

The Board of Directors will analyze and evaluate its effectiveness every year in order to fulfill its expected roles and functions more effectively.

(2) Method and items of evaluation

The effectiveness of the Board of Directors shall be analyzed and evaluated in terms of a variety of aspects by specifying appropriate evaluation items. These items will make it possible to understand the makeup of the Board of Directors and identify the degree of the contribution made by individual directors to the Board of Directors, etc.

[Evaluation subject]

All directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board

[Evaluation method]

Self-Evaluation

This evaluation was conducted via a written survey, with each of the respondents identified. Following a discussion using the aggregated results, the Board of Directors evaluated its effectiveness, clarified issues and adopted measures for the future.

[Evaluation items]

- (a) Roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors
- (b) Fulfilling the function of external directors
- (c) Composition of the Board of Directors
- (d) Operation of the Board of Directors
- (e) Contributions of individual directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board
- (f) Dialogue with shareholders

[Evaluation period]

One year from January to December

(3) Disclosure of evaluation results

The overview of the evaluation results and the future issues and measures of the Board of Directors will be disclosed every year via the Company's website and the integrated report, etc.

https://ir.kurita.co.jp/en/corporate_governance/board_evaluation/index.html

⇒ According to the evaluation results for January to December 2022, the average self-evaluation of all directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board was generally good in all six areas, indicating that the Board of Directors is operating effectively. By category, "operation of the Board of Directors" was most highly evaluated as in the previous year. This was followed by "Fulfilling the function of external directors" and "contributions of individual directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board." However, in the "roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors" category, items related to the building and monitoring of the DX promotion structure and "dialogue with shareholders" received relatively low valuations compared with other items in the previous evaluation results. Our conduction for these issue are below.

Issue: The Bord of directors has to show clarified direction for management policy which is planned by management members and identify important appeal point for investors and shareholders to improve the quality of the dialogue.

Measures: Through the following measures, we will build a DX promotion system and improve the quality of constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors.

(1) Clarify the direction of the transformation of the business model and the transformation of the business process utilizing digital technology that management has considered through discussions at the Board of Directors.

(2) Based on the opinions and expectations of shareholders and investors, directors and management will create opportunities for dialogue with shareholders and investors regarding their areas of responsibility and areas of expertise based on the direction that the Group is aiming for through various strategies.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Training policies for the Directors]

(1) Orientation for newly-appointed Directors

Newly-appointed Directors shall participate in the prescribed orientation immediately after they take office so that they can perform their expected roles and duties.

(2) Self-improvement of the Directors

The Directors shall acquire the knowledge they require on their own and continuously devote themselves to learning so that they can perform their expected roles as executives who play a role in the important governing bodies of a company. The Company will provide the Directors with information about external seminars and other opportunities for self-improvement, and cover their expenses within the range specified in a separate document.

(3) Checking the implementation status of training

The Board of Directors will check the implementation status of training for the Directors every year.

⇒ In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Company held study sessions to exchange opinions on engagement with capital markets and on DX-related topics. In addition, the company conducted on-site inspections of the company (for outside directors) and orientations for newly appointed directors, and each director also participates in external seminars and others for self-development.

[Principle 5.1 Policies for dialogue with shareholders and investors and the appropriate disclosure of information]

(1) Basic stance

Continuing to emphasize management that values shareholders, the Kurita Group will actively listen to feedback of shareholders and investors, and continuously work to develop a framework to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors in order to contribute to the sustainable growth of the Company and enhance its corporate value in the medium and long term.

(2) Framework for promoting dialogue

The responsible official in charge of conducting constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors shall be the Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division. The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division shall, upon receiving a request for dialogue from shareholders and investors, individually engage in dialogue, and work to set up a useful place for shareholders and investors by securing opportunities for them to engage in a dialogue with the President and Executive Officer and the Directors including External Directors.

As an organization that supports dialogue with shareholders and investors, the Company will set up full-time

IR and SR sections in the Corporate Control and Administration Division, and appoint full-time IR and SR staff. To identify and gather important in-house information and manage and disclose it appropriately, the Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division will also set up an disclosure council consisting of the persons in Corporate Control and Administration Division in charge of Corporate Planning, General Affairs and Risk Management, Corporate Accounting and Corporate Finance, and Sustainability Division in charge of ESG Integration, Governance Promotion, and Corporate Communication to share information regularly or as needed. The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division will manage this group and provide the information necessary for dialogue.

(3) Efforts to enhance IR and SR activities

The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division shall be in charge of IR and SR activities. The full-time IR and SR staff will work to ensure a constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors by planning and conducting various explanatory meetings and transmitting more information via website.

(4) Conveying the feedback of shareholders and investors to management

The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division shall convey the feedback and concerns of shareholders identified through dialogue with them to the Board of Directors on a regular basis or as needed. The full-time IR and SR staff shall prepare the minutes soon after the dialogue is conducted, and provide an environment where the Directors, the Executive Officers, and the Corporate Officers are able to read the minutes whenever they wish to do so.

The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division shall report on the results of and plans for IR and SR activities at the Board of Directors twice a year.

(5) Management of insider information

The Company has established the “Regulations Concerning Regulations on Insider Trading of Shares, etc.” as specified by law to prevent insider trading from occurring, and will work to observe the Regulations in dialogue with shareholders and investors. The Company has also set up a silent period that lasts from the day after the fiscal year end to the announcement of business results. In general, the purpose of the silent period is to prevent the leakage of information about business results and ensure fair information disclosure. The Company will refrain from answering questions and commenting on business results during the silent period. However, in the event that performance is expected to significantly deviate from forecasts during the quiet period, the Company will implement appropriate information disclosure in accordance with the standards for information disclosure.

(6) Understanding the shareholder structure

To promote dialogue with substantial shareholders, the Company will make efforts to understand the shareholder structure by conducting a survey at least twice a year in Japan and other countries to identify substantial shareholders.

[Supplementary Principle 5.2.1 Policy for business portfolio management]

In accordance with the policy for business portfolio management approved at its meetings, the Board of Directors evaluates each business segment at least once a year from the perspectives of growth potential, return on capital, etc. and supervises the allocation of managerial resources and implementation of strategies based on the business portfolio. Moreover, the Board will work to better illustrate the status of review of the business portfolio, etc. when publicly disclosing managerial strategies, etc.

[Initiatives for management that takes into consideration the cost of capital and stock price]

The Company uses ROIC (return on invested capital) as a management indicator. It is advancing ROIC-based management where it uses ROIC in the evaluation of the business portfolio and investment decision making to strengthen our efforts to achieve profit growth and improve capital efficiency. For details, please see the Company’s Medium-term Management Plan, etc.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods Updated

The Company reviewed its executive remuneration system at the same time as transitioning to a company with nominating committee, etc. on June 29, 2023.

The Company determines remuneration, etc. for Officers ("Officers" is a generic term for directors and executive officers in this section.) based on the following basic policy regarding the determination of remuneration for Officers.

Basic Policy on Determining Remuneration for Officers

1. The remuneration paid to Officers is designed to attract and retain talented people with diverse skills, experience, etc., to help realize the corporate philosophy.
2. The Company intends that remuneration be linked to business performance and medium- to long-term corporate value in order to function as a sound incentive for sustainable growth.
3. The decision-making process of remuneration shall be highly transparent so that the objectivity of remuneration decisions will be ensured.

[Objectives of the basic policy]

- The basic policy is to establish a structure and level of remuneration that enables us to secure excellent personnel capable of supervising and executing the management of the Company in order to realize its corporate philosophy.
- The remuneration system shall function as a sound incentive for sustainable growth, taking into account the enhancement of corporate value from a long-term perspective and the accommodation of expectations and requests from shareholders and other stakeholders.
- In addition to establishing a periodic remuneration level check process that refers to external remuneration data, the remuneration determination process shall be highly objective and transparent in compliance with the Companies Act and other laws and regulations pertaining to remuneration for Officers.

<Matters regarding policy for the determination of or the method for calculating Officers' remuneration, etc.>
The remuneration system for the Company's Directors, excluding External Directors, for the fiscal year under review consists of fixed remuneration as basic remuneration and incentive remuneration that reflects the results of business performance. The remuneration system for External Directors and the members of the Audit & Supervisory Board, who are responsible for the supervisory function, is based on a fixed remuneration system. The amount of fixed remuneration is set by position for Directors and by type of service for the Audit & Supervisory Board members, and a portion of the fixed remuneration is contributed to the Directors' and Audit & Supervisory Board Members' Shareholding Scheme to enable Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board members to share the risk of stock price fluctuations with shareholders and is used to acquire the Company's shares.

The incentive remuneration is divided into short-term incentive remuneration and long-term incentive remuneration. The short-term incentive remuneration increases or decreases according to the degree of achievement of the consolidated operating profit plan for the fiscal year and the performance of each employee's assigned duties. For the long-term incentive remuneration, the Company has introduced a performance-linked stock compensation plan in which points are awarded according to business performance and the position during the term of office and the number of the Company's common shares equivalent to the accumulated number of points are delivered upon retirement. It shall be determined by the resolution of the Board of Directors. The resolution by the Board of Directors was made on the basis of a report by the Nomination & Remuneration Advisory Council, which was consulted in advance about the details of the resolution.

After June 29, 2023, the remuneration system for the Directors of the Company will be fixed remuneration only in order for them to focus on supervision. In addition, for Directors to share the risk of share price fluctuations with shareholders, a portion of the fixed remuneration for Directors (excluding External Directors and Directors who are Audit Committee members) shall be non-performance-linked stock compensation, and a portion of the fixed remuneration for External Directors and Directors who are Audit Committee members shall be contributed to the Directors' Shareholding Scheme to be used to purchase the Company shares. The remuneration system for Executive Officers shall be fixed remuneration and incentive remuneration that reflects business performance results.

The amount of fixed remuneration is set by position for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit Committee members) and Executive Officers and by type of service for Directors who are Audit Committee members. In addition, for Directors (excluding External Directors and Directors who are Audit Committee members), the Company has introduced a non-performance-linked stock compensation plan in which points are awarded according to the position and the number of the Company's restricted shares equivalent to the number of points are delivered every year.

The incentive remuneration is divided into short-term incentive remuneration and long-term incentive remuneration. The short-term incentive remuneration increases or decreases according to the difference in return on invested capital (ROIC) for the fiscal year from the previous year, the business performance of each Director's duties, and the degree of achievement of customer contribution value indicators for the environment, which are set to provide incentives to enhance the corporate value of the Company through the realization of social value. For the long-term incentive remuneration, the Company has introduced a performance-linked stock compensation plan in which points are awarded according to the position based on the results of return on equity attributable to owners of parent (ROE) and total shareholder return (TSR) for each fiscal year during the term of office and the number of restricted shares* of the Company equivalent to the number of points are delivered each year. It shall be determined by the resolution of the Compensation Committee. The status of execution of duties by the Compensation Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors without delay.

* If an eligible person under the remuneration system is a not resident of Japan or if there are special circumstances, such as a case where different treatment is required under laws, regulations or tax systems, the Company may grant shares without transfer restrictions by resolution of the Compensation Committee.

Support System for External Directors

The Board of Directors Secretariat will provide External Directors with information about meetings of the Board of Directors, distribution of materials, and advance explanations of agenda items.

IV. Matters Concerning the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and Status of Development

In the meeting of the Board of Directors for the fiscal month of May 2006, the Company established the Basic Policies for Constructing an Internal Control System for the Company and its Group in accordance with the Companies Act and worked to strengthen its internal controls in accordance with the basic policies.

The Company transitioned to a company with a nominating committee, etc. as of the 87th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 2023, and the "Basic Policies for Constructing an Internal Control System" as of June 29, 2023 are described in this paragraph.

https://ir.kurita.co.jp/en/corporate_governance/internal_control_system/index.html

[Systems]

1. System to ensure that the execution of the duties of Executive Officers and employees conforms with laws, regulations, and the articles of incorporation

(1) The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Group Companies"), will comply with laws and regulations in accordance with social ethics and have specified actions based on compliance with laws, regulations, and social ethics as a prerequisite for corporate activities to construct transparent and fair relationships with shareholders, customers, employees, local communities, and trade partners at all places in which business activities are conducted. We have also established the Kurita Group Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics (fairness, transparency, integrity, safety and compatibility), with which officers, etc. (collective term for Directors, Executive Officers, Corporate Officers, and other personnel equivalent to them and Directors, members of the Audit & Supervisory Board, and personnel equivalent to them of the Group Companies; the same applies hereinafter) and employees of the Company and the Group Companies should comply, irrespective of differences in language, custom and cultural background, to fully enforce actions based on compliance with laws, regulations and social ethics in our daily business activities. In addition, the Company and the Group Companies will stand up to antisocial forces that potentially pose a threat to social order and safety with a resolute attitude, and work to fight off the unjustified claims of antisocial forces in a determined manner.

(2) The Company sets up the Sustainability Committee, which is chaired by the Executive General Manager of the Sustainability Division, who is a Corporate Officer. In this Committee, the members set out policies and important measures for integrity activities*, and convey them to all employees through the divisions, and a committee, etc. of each Group Company. The responsible Executive Officer or Corporate Officer will regularly report the status of activities and their results to the Board of Directors to continuously raise the compliance level. If the Chairperson of this Committee determines that there is a serious problem or a doubt related to compliance, the Chairperson will immediately report it to the President and Representative Executive Officer and the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, and then formulate and implement remedial actions and preventive measures. The President and Representative Executive Officer and the Chairperson of this Committees will report these events to the Board of Director or the Audit Committee whenever appropriate.

*The term "integrity activities" involve activities related to compliance.

(3) The Company establishes the Internal Auditing Department to conduct internal audits on matters such as those related to compliance activities. The Internal Auditing Department is placed under the direct control of the President and Representative Executive Officer in the organizational structure and conducts internal audits based on audit plans approved by the Audit Committee and the President and Representative Executive Officer. The General Manager of Internal Auditing Department shall report audit results to the Audit Committee and the President and Representative Executive Officer periodically or after each audit, depending on the type of audit. Moreover, the General Manager of Internal Auditing Department shall, where there is an emergency or special measures are deemed to be required during audits, immediately report to a member of the Audit Committee, and where necessary, to the President and Representative Executive Officer.

(4) The Company establishes the Operational Regulations for Whistle-Blower Protection Systems as a mechanism for the officers, etc. and employees of the Company and the Group Companies to directly provide information about legally doubtful conducts, etc. In conjunction with these regulations, the Company also establishes the Compliance Counselling Counter. The Company also works to ensure the fairness and transparency of the management of the Company and the Group Companies by regularly reporting the status of the operation of the contact for Public Interest Whistle-Blowing to the Board of Directors.

(5) The Company establishes and operates the "Internal Control Reporting System" in accordance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act to ensure the accuracy of the financial reporting of the Company and the Group Companies. Monitoring, advices on improvement, and support for improvement for the operation of the System are implemented, with the Internal Auditing Department as the responsible department. In addition, the Corporate Accounting Department in the Corporate Control and Administration Division shares responsibility for monitoring, recommendations for improvement, and support for improvement related to the "operations process control inside the Company" and the "account settlement and financial reporting process control of consolidated subsidiaries from a company-wide perspective."

(6) In response to the "Corporate Governance Code" set forth in the Securities Listing Regulations of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, the Company establishes policies for corporate governance and strengthens its corporate governance, with the aim of realizing transparent, fair, prompt, and decisive decision-making and more effective management supervision of the Company and the Group Companies.

2. System to store and manage information about the execution of the duties of Executive Officers

Information about the execution of the duties of Executive Officers is stored and managed in documents (including electromagnetic records) by appointing a responsible person in charging of managing it and setting the storage period, etc., in accordance with the Document Regulations and the Confidential Information Management Regulations. The Directors may inspect these documents, etc. when necessary.

3. Regulations and other systems for managing the risk of loss

(1) Risks pertaining to the Company and the Group Companies are monitored and risk management is promoted by the Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division. The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division regularly analyzes and assesses the risks of the Company and the Group Companies, and makes efforts to prevent the occurrence of risks through continuous monitoring. If a risk that may have a material impact on management becomes apparent, the Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division will appoint a responsible official, draw up a system to address the risk, and immediately issue a command after gaining the approval of the President and Representative Executive Officer. The responsible official will immediately implement countermeasures and report the impact of the risk, the status of correcting the risk, and the measures for preventing the risk to the President and Representative Executive Officer, the Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division, and the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee.

(2) In regards to serious risks, the Chairperson of the Sustainability Committee will be the responsible official for risks related to compliance, and the Chairperson of the Headquarters Health and Safety Committee will be the responsible official for risks related to health, safety, and occupational accidents. Risks that are directly related to daily business activities are addressed by the Executive General Managers of the divisions, who acts as the responsible official. Other day-to-day risks related to quality, the environment, information security, and export regulations, etc. are addressed by their respective departments.

(3) The Executive General Manager of the Corporate Control and Administration Division, the Chairpersons of the Committees, and the Executive General Managers of the divisions regularly report the status of activities to promote risk management and integrity to the Board of Directors.

(4) The status of the implementation of risk management and improvements is monitored, with the Internal Auditing Department acting as the responsible department.

4. System to ensure the efficient execution of duties by the Executive Officers

The Company will improve the efficiency of the execution of duties of the Executive Officers based on the following management control system and mechanism.

(1) The Board of Directors specifies the operations delegated to the Executive Officers and the responsible officials of organizations with the rank equivalent to or higher than Executive General Manager of a division.

(2) The Board of Directors determines policies for formulating a corporate vision, a medium-term management plan, and a business plan for a single fiscal year, and the Executive Officers formulate a business plan for a single fiscal year in accordance with the said policies and set out the targets, policies, and focused measures for each organization. The Board of Directors receives reports from the Executive Officers on monthly and quarterly business performance in relation to the consolidated and non-consolidated targets of the Company and the business departments and supervises the performance.

(3) The Board of Directors entrusts the Executive Officers to make decisions on operational execution excluding matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors. In addition, the final decision application system is set up, in line with the Executive Committee and the Final Decision and Examination Regulations, as a system to complement the decision-making.

(4) The Executive Committee consists of the President and Representative Executive Officer and Executive Officers and Corporate Officers appointed by the President and Representative Executive Officer. The committee meets twice a month in principle, and on a temporary basis when necessary. In the Executive Committee, the members make decisions related to the management of the Company and the Group Companies, conduct a monthly and quarterly check of whether targets have been achieved and the status of implementation of policies and measures, and give each Executive Officer and Corporate Officer instructions to correct deviations. The members of the Audit Committee may attend the Executive Committee.

(5) The decision to establish, revise, or abolish the Final Decision and Examination Regulations is made by the Board of Directors. For the Executive Officers and Corporate Officers to conduct their duties more efficiently, internal regulations conforming to the Final Decision and Examination Regulations are established and implemented.

5. System to ensure the accuracy of operations in a corporate group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries

The Company and Group Companies perform operations appropriately by the following systems and the frameworks that are in place.

(1) The Company and Group Companies set a medium-term management plan and a business plan for a single fiscal year based on a unified outline for formulating plans.

(2) The overall management of Group Companies is controlled by the Corporate Control and Administration Division. In addition, an Executive Officer, Corporate Officer, and department of the Company in charge of each Group Company are appointed to regularly determine the status of the business performance achieved and the status of risk management based on the medium-term management plan and the business plan for a single fiscal year, and to provide the Group Companies with guidance.

(3) A Board of Directors is set up in each Group Company, and the Company or Group Companies dispatch a (non-standing) director and (non-standing) member of the Audit & Supervisory Board to monitor the management of the Board of Directors, business performance, settlement of accounts, and risks. If a decision needs to be made as the Group Companies, the decision is made in accordance with "7. Matters related to subsidiaries and associates in Japan and overseas," an appendix 1 of the Final Decision and Examination Regulations of the Company, the Board of Directors, or the Executive Committee of the Company.

(4) In regards to the Group Companies' efforts related to integrity, the Sustainability Committee of the Company sets out policies and priority measures, and a committee, etc. of each Group Company formulates and implements specific measures. In addition, the system for ensuring the accuracy of the financial reporting by the Group is considered and established as part of the approaches stated in Article 1, Paragraph 5.

(5) The Group Companies report the status of their management, sales activities, manufacturing, and risk management, etc. to the Company regularly, such as on a monthly or quarterly basis.

6. Matters related to an employee assigned to assist the Audit Committee in fulfilling its duties, matters related to the independence of the employee from the Executive Officers, and matters related to ensuring the effectiveness of instructions issued to the employee

(1) The Secretariat to the Audit Committee is set up as an organization that assists the Audit Committee in fulfilling its duties, and an employee, etc. is appointed as its full-time staff member. The Audit Committee may instruct a certain employee, etc. who belongs to the Internal Auditing Department to assist the Committee.

(2) The employee, etc. who assists the Audit Committee in fulfilling its duties provides assistance independent of the Executive Officers. In addition, the opinions of the members of the Audit Committee are respected regarding personnel changes and evaluations, etc. of the employee, etc.

(3) The employee, etc. who assists the Audit Committee in fulfilling its duties may regularly attend places where opinions are exchanged between the President and Representative Executive Officer and the accounting auditor within the company of a member of the Audit Committee.

7. System for reporting to the Audit Committee

(1) In order to regularly confirm that the Executive Officers, Corporate Officers, and employees of the Company perform operations appropriately, the members of the Audit Committee may attend the Executive Committee and the Sustainability Committee, etc.

(2) The members of the Audit Committee selected by the Audit Committee (hereinafter, the "selected members of the Audit Committee") may inspect documents, etc. necessary for their auditing work at any time, irrespective of the provisions of the Document Regulations, the Confidential Information Management Regulations, and other regulations.

(3) The Executive Officers and Corporate Officers of the Company report important matters related to the execution of duties to the Audit Committee or the members of the Audit Committee whenever appropriate through the Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings.

(4) The officers, etc. and employees of the Company and the Group Companies immediately report matters which may cause significant damage to the operations or financial standing of the Group, matters which are important for internal audits and risk management, matters related to a grave breach of laws, regulations, or the articles of incorporation, and other matters which are important for complying with corporate ethics, laws, and regulations, to the respective departments in charge within the Company. The departments in charge report the details of the reported matter to the Audit Committee or a member of the Audit Committee.

(5) The selected members of the Audit Committee may request officers, etc. and employees of the Company and the Group Companies to report matters related to the execution of their duties and operations, and those who were requested to do so shall immediately submit the report. The selected members of the Audit Committee may also request the accounting auditor to report the status of accounting audits and other necessary matters, and the accounting auditor makes a report related to accounting as needed.

(6) The Company prohibits those who made a report to a department in charge, the Audit Committee or the members of the Audit Committee in accordance with the provisions of the above paragraph (4) from being treated unfavorably on the grounds of making a report, and makes this fact fully known to officers, etc. and employees of the Company and Group Companies.

8. Other systems to ensure the effective auditing of the Audit Committee

(1) The Audit Committee and the President and Representative Executive Officer exchange opinions regularly. Where the Audit Committee has requested an exchange of opinions, the Executive Officers and other requested personnel provide full cooperation.

(2) The Audit Committee establishes standards for appointing, dismissing, and refusing to reappoint the accounting auditor, and nominates a candidate for the accounting auditor. The Company and the Group Companies secure sufficient amount of time for the accounting auditor to conduct a high-quality audit. The Audit Committee, the Internal Auditing Department, and the accounting auditor promote a cooperation by mutually checking each other's audit plans and sharing their concerns.

(3) The Audit Committee holds discussions and exchange opinions with the Internal Auditing Department and the accounting auditor when necessary.

(4) The Audit Committee allocates expenses that are deemed necessary for the execution of duties in advance. However, the Audit Committee may charge the Company postmortem for expenses it spent on urgent or provisional matters.

2. Basic Views on Measures for Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and Status of Development

Regarding the elimination of antisocial forces, the Company has established the relevant provisions in "1. System to ensure that the execution of the duties of directors and employees conforms with laws, regulations and the Articles of Incorporation" of the "Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development" above.

Skills Matrix of Directors

To realize our corporate philosophy, we have set the necessary knowledge, experience, and capabilities as skill items based on management strategies such as the Kurita Group's value creation story and medium-term management plan. The skill items are largely divided into two categories. One is corporate governance and management, under which three skill items of "corporate management and corporate planning," "finance and accounting," and "legal and HR management" are set as basic elements that are particularly essential. The other is about creating shared value with society by providing solutions that make full use of "water knowledge," which is obtained by leveraging diversity* of human resources and other elements. To drive this initiative, we have set six skill items of "human rights," "global," "understanding and solving issues on site," "R&D, technology, and engineering," "digital transformation (DX)," and "environment." We believe that our Board of Directors should possess these nine items of skills for oversight of management.

*The "diversity" means the variety of elements that form "diverse points of contact with sites" that are the source of the Kurita Group's competitiveness, such as contact points with customers, business fields, business development areas / countries, and technology fields, in addition to human resources.

< Skills and Reason for Selection >

High-level concepts	Skills	Reason for appointment
Corporate governance and management	Corporate management/ Corporate planning Finance and accounting Legal and HR management	These are regarded as the skills, knowledge, and experience that provide a foundation for conducting management oversight.
Leveraging diversity ▼ Making full use of water knowledge ▼ Creating social value	Human rights	In developing its business globally, the Kurita Group encounters diverse working environments, business customs, and trading practices, and there is a need to engage in business activities while respecting the human rights of stakeholders. To this end, the Group has defined a basic materiality theme as "Conduct business activities respecting human rights." The Group is promoting initiatives to ensure respect for the human rights of employees, suppliers and other stakeholders in the countries and regions where it conducts business. The Group also recognizes the importance of leveraging diversity in human resources as a foundation for innovation and as a source of value creation leading to sustainable growth. 'Human rights' has thus been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management due to its importance as a management issue.
	Global	To accelerate global business development, the Kurita Group is working to speed up the development of products and services tailored to local and regional market characteristics. The category 'Global' represents a level of international experience and understanding of these regions and countries. We see it as one of the essential elements in cultivating the "diverse points of contact with sites" that constitute a source of the Group's competitive advantage. 'Global' has been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management because we consider a deep knowledge of global markets as essential for developing business globally and increasing corporate value.
	Understanding and solving issues on site	The Kurita Group delivers solutions addressing water-related issues at the sites of various customers worldwide. At "diverse points of contact with sites," we engage seriously with customers' issues, utilizing our "water knowledge" in the form of accumulated information and data to create proprietary and innovative solutions. We see this as the source of shared value creation with customers and society. This area has been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management because we value having a deep understanding of the points of contact with customer sites as a source of value creation, alongside extensive experience of addressing such issues.
	R&D, technology, and engineering	The Group combines technology and expertise acquired from various business domains to create new products, services, and technologies. Amid significant recent changes in the external environment, we consider ensuring customer business continuity to be one area where we can provide added value. Accordingly, we have reviewed our methods of product, service, and technology delivery and the procurement and production set-up to improve our cost competitiveness and production capacity. Because we see strengthening of development, technology, and production as a key platform for creating and providing solutions, this area has been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management.
	DX	The Group aims to achieve DX by utilizing digital technology to change business processes and to transform business models. 'DX' has been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management since we consider it a priority for the deployment of digital tools, AI, and IoT, and for the utilization of information and data collected from diverse customer sites as "water knowledge," resulting in creation of innovative shared value with customers and society.
Environment	The three shared value themes that the Kurita Group has defined as Kurita Group's Materiality are 'Solve issues related to water resources,' 'Contribute to the realization of a decarbonized society,' and 'Contribute to building a circular economy society.' These are priority issues that we seek to address. We have defined as "CSV business" the Group products, technologies and business models that significantly contribute to water saving, the reduction of GHG emissions and resource input, and the recycling of resources compared with prior levels. We are working to create shared value with society via their development and provision to customers. 'Environment' has been selected as a skill category for Board oversight of management because we regard it as part of our mission to reduce environmental impact through our business activities.
